Washington, Jan. 7.—A warrant for the arrest and deportation of Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled ambassador of the Russian soviet government, has been ordered executed by the Department of Justice.

Martens, regarded, officials say, as the real leader of the Communist party in the United States, was said to be in Washington. His arrest was expected soon.

Determination of the government to take Martens into custody was definitely made after all evidence which had a bearing on activities of the Russian soviet bureau in New York had been assembled by Assistant Attorney General Garvan. Officials said some of the evidence promised to be sensational.

Martens came to Washington nearly a week ago from New York and with his secretary and other assistants, has occupied a suite at a local hotel.

Charles Reich, consul for Martens, and other foreign extremists here, went to Washington last night "in connection with interests of his clients at Ellis Island," his offices announced today.

Democrats to Back
President's Policy

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, Jan. 7.—A resolution endorsing President Wilson's stand on the peace treaty and commending his efforts to establish a league of peace is to be read before the democratic national committee at its meeting here tomorrow, with the backing of the committee officials.

"If I have anything to do with it," said Chairman Cummings today, after consultation with various party leaders, "the resolution will be so clear as to leave no doubt about our position. We are behind the president."

The announcement that formal action by the committee would be sought was taken as enhancing the prospect that the treaty would become an active campaign issue. The general expectation was that the committee would adopt the resolution, helping to open the way for discussion of the subject at the Jackson Day banquet Thursday night.

Both in a letter from President Wilson and in a speech by William Jennings Bryan the treaty is expected by committee members to be brought prominently forward at the banquet.

The committee resolution is understood to go no further than endorsing the position of the president, avoiding any direct declaration for ratification without reservations. Mr. Cummings said that the view of the executive had been made known in numerous public addresses and messages and needed no interpretation.

The fight over the place of this year's national convention also is to be decided tomorrow, became more spirited today. Of the six cities asking for the honor, only three seemed to be serious contenders. They were San Francisco, Kansas City and Chicago, with the two former making the most vigorous fights.

CEMETERY CHARGES
SUBJECT OF "KICK"
BY DIXON DIRECTORS

Undertakers Appeared Before Council to Register Objections.

The regular session of the city council last evening proved to be a very interesting one from more than one standpoint. The session lasted for two hours, not including an earlier informal meeting of the members of the council. After calling the roll and passing the regular monthly bills, which amounted to $2455.80, the body went into session as the board of local improvements.

A petition was read with the signatures of some property owners on Pecora avenue, some of whom reside south of Tenth street, objecting to the proposed paving of that street. The opposition to the pavement centered among property holders south from Seventh to Tenth streets and several of the objectors were present. Mayor Smith explained that objectors would be given an opportunity to be heard at the public hearing on the improvement which will be held at the city hall Tuesday evening, Jan. 20 at 8:30 in the evening, following the regular council meeting. He also explained to those objectors who were present that the city did not contemplate paving south of Tenth St. this year.

Local improvement ordinances 192 and 193, series of 1920 providing for the cement concrete paving of Galena avenue and Hennepin avenue from Seventh to Tenth streets and of Tenth street from Galena avenue west to Pecora avenues were read and the date for the public hearing set. Mayor Smith appointed Attorney Anna Jensen commissioner under the first ordinance and Attorney Lloyd Scriven in the same capacity on the second improvement. The engineer's estimate of cost of the paving is $31,591.66. The board then adjourned and reconvened in regular council session.

Cemetery Finances Depleted

A representation of local undertakers consisting of Joseph Staples and C. Gonnemann were present and brought up subject of charges made for opening graves in Oakwood cemetery. Mr. Staples in addressing the council stated that a grave opened recently, part of the work being done on Sunday, had been charged at $17.50 which amount was considered excessive. This subject brought on a general discussion of the members of the council and the representative undertakers present. Mayor Smith admitted that the cemetery finances were sadly depleted and added that the cemetery had been operated at a loss every year but the loss was more marked this year than any of the others. Commissioner George Campbell in charge of the cemetery, expressed himself as believing that the charges were in keeping with those of other cemeteries in surrounding towns. It was generally conceded that the cemetery proposition has been everything but a pleasant one not only to the present council but to many preceding municipal bodies. The undertakers requested that some scale of prices be adopted or some system arrived at which will reduce the cost now made for opening of graves and interments. No action was taken upon the matter which was referred to Commissioner Campbell for further investigation.

R. K. Ott and Gordon Utley, heads of manufacturing industries located in the old Dixon college buildings in the west end of the city appeared before the members of the council with reference to the possibility of having a switch track built, running from the present belt line to their factories. This matter was also discussed briefly by members of the council.

Gilmour Threw Self on Mercy of Court This Afternoon.

Marriam L. Gilmour, aged 29, who was yesterday indicted by the Lee county grand jury for bigamy, was arraigned before Judge Farrand in the circuit court this afternoon and pleaded guilty to the charge. He was not represented by an attorney and placed himself at the mercy of the court. Under the law Judge Farrand sentenced him to an indeterminate term in the penitentiary at Joliet, the length of the sentence to be determined by the State Division of Pardons and Paroles. In view of extenuating circumstances, which because he did not go to trial did not come before the court today, it is believed that with good behavior he will be able to gain his freedom in 11 months. He is anxious to begin serving his sentence at once so that he can get back to his wife and baby as soon as possible.

J. Armstrong to defend him and will be arraigned later this afternoon or later in the week.

Harry Marcus, indicted for larceny, and Raymond Fry, held for alleged forgery of a check on the Charles Case store in Paw Paw, were also to be taken into court this afternoon.

At this morning's session of the court Judge Farrand called the docket of old and new cases and the trial list was made up. There are indications that the jury during the second and third weeks of the term will be kept busy, but the second panel will not be confronted with a heavy trial list.

The trial list for the term is: Monday, Jan. 12—Johnson vs. Crawford.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—Garbiele Porter, an American citizen in the employ of the Penn-Mex Company was shot and killed by a Mexican federal army officer at Tuxpan on Dec. 21, according to advices received by the state department today from the American consul at Tampico.

The consul immediately was ordered to report further information and if the circumstances warranted to urge the local authorities in the Tampico district to arrest and punish the guilty person.

This makes a total of twenty Americans killed in the Tampico district by Mexicans since April 7, 1917. Eighteen of them were employees of American oil companies.

The Mexican authorities first reported that Porter had been accidentally shot by a companion in a party returning from a dance. Investigation by the Penn-Mex officials and by the American consul was said to have developed, however, that he was shot by an army officer. Porter's home was in Fullerton, Cal.

BULLETIN.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 7.—"Tia Juana, Mexico, will get the Dempsey-Carpentier fight," said Jack Kearns, manager for the world's champion, when advised today by the Associated Press of Georges Carpentier's conditional acceptance of Promoter Coffroth's offer.

Kearns said he would prepare a further statement within a few hours.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 7.—Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, woke up this morning to learn from the public prints that he and Georges Carpentier, whom he had expressed a desire to meet in the ring would meet some time soon at Tijuana, Lower California.

James D. Coffroth recently obtained an agreement from Dempsey's manager Jack Kearns, for the champion to meet Carpentier at Tijuana and cablegrams last night brought word that Carpentier's managers had agreed to the match. The only stipulation was that it be not over 15 rounds in length and as to this Coffroth in San Diego expressed no disagreement.

"A fight of that length ought to be decisive especially with heavyweights," he said.

Date Not Determined

Every effort to reach Dempsey or his manager here failed last night. Coffroth said he could not fix the date of the match definitely although he expressed a desire to hold it as soon as the arena plans could be constructed at Tijuana. This arena, he announced, would seat 50,000 persons. Coffroth said the only instructions given to Charles Harvey in Paris, were to offer the best terms possible to Carpentier's manager. "Until I hear from Harvey or Des camps," he said, "I shall be more or less in the dark, of course, but it will not take long to start operations here when we hear from the other side. I am sure I am not over sanguine when I say I hope for an attendance which would total 1,500,000.

Boxers to Determine Self

"Naturally I should like to have the fight in the summer time when the weather will be good. But the date must depend largely on the boxers.

"The division of the money is another question which the boxers must decide. That it will be the greatest match the world has known, at least, in point of interest, is certain. Every one knows of Carpentier partly from his war fame; everyone has a good idea of what Dempsey can do. The whole world will be interested in the outcome."

Fifteen Rounds Enough

Carpentier and Dempsey will probably meet in a world's championship fight as the result of the acceptance last night of an offer of a $400,000 purse for the bout by James Coffroth. Dempsey has already accepted Coffroth's terms and all that remains to ensure the meeting is the settlement of the number of rounds and the division of the purse. Coffroth's offer was for 45 rounds but Carpentier would rather have the fight limited to fifteen rounds or even ten. Descamps declared last night that if the issue is not settled in less than 15 rounds, neither Dempsey or Carpentier is worthy to be champion of the world.

It was indicated Descamps would ask for an even break of the purse, holding Carpentier was as great a drawing card as Dempsey.

Mr. Henry Hey, the assistant superintendent introduced some unique features and they pleased the scholars. He inspired the school to look forward to better things. Mr. Homer Senneff, one of the new officers, also presented some fine things on the subject of attendance and definite purposes in the work of the school.

The prayer meetings are growing in attendance and interest. The new freedom and fervor in prayer is very encouraging. We expect a good meeting Thursday evening. Mr. Beckingham, the leader, always brings us a lesson that is helpful and instructive.

The choir will meet after the prayer meeting. Every member is expected to be present.

The pastor desires to meet the trustees and stewards immediately after the prayer meeting.

Dr. William Matthew Holderby, the Field Secretary of the Family Altar League, whose office is in Chicago, will speak at Grace church next Sunday morning and evening. He is a mighty preacher and many will want to hear him. He will address the pastors and officials of the churches of Dixon at a luncheon at the Y. M. C. A. next Monday noon. His contact with many churches and people fits him to give messages of great practical value.

Fort Dodge, Ia. — "From the time my daughter was 12 years old until she was 16 she suffered so badly each month, that sometimes I had to call in the doctor. She had headaches, backache, and such pains and cramps that she would have to stay in bed two or three days. She became terribly run down in health and at last a friend who had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound told her about it and she has used sixteen bottles and we always have it in the house. She feels like a new woman and has no trouble at all each month. We always praise it and advise any friends who suffer to use your wonderful medicine." — Mrs. MINNIE MANDELKO, 1005 S. 18th St., & 10th Avenue, Fort Dodge, Iowa.

A DIXON MAN'S EXPERIENCE

Can you doubt the evidence of this Dixon citizen?

You can verify Dixon endorsement. Read this:

B. H. Kenzler, prop./painting & decorating esth., 722 S. Dement St., Dixon, says: "Some years ago I had a bad attack of kidney complaint. I was laid up for three weeks and couldn't do a bit of work. I had to hobble about with a stick, as my back was so sore and lame. When in bed I had to be propped up with pillows. Inhaling the fumes from the paint is what I blame for my kidney trouble. I got a box of Doan's Kidney Pills at Campbell & Son's Drug Store and used them. It was only a couple of days before I was back to work again."

MINERS RATIFY COAL AGREEMENT BY LARGE VOTE

United Mine Workers 8 to 1 in Favor of 14 Pct. Agreement.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
 Columbus, O., Jan. 7.—By the overwhelming vote of 1,634 for, to 221 against, the reconvened convention of the United Mine Workers of America today voted affirmation of the action of the international officers in accepting President Wilson's proposal to settle the coal strike.

According to Acting President Lewis and other international officers the affirmation carries with it an agreement to abide by the decision of the commission named by the president to arbitrate the differences between miners and operators.

The vote was taken after three days debate on a motion presented by Philip Murray, president of the Pennsylvania miners organization, calling for endorsement of the course pursued by the international officers.

Wide latitude was given all delegates to express their views.

Demands for a vote was immediately made by delegates after acting President Lewis had made an appeal for approval of the international officials' action.

After the vote was taken Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois miners, sought to obtain recognition for the first time during the convention. He was reminded that he was out of order. Opponents of the proposed settlement plan called for Farrington and Alexander Howat, president of the Kansas miners. Secretary-Treasurer Green, who was occupying the chair, rapped for order. He ordered Farrington to be seated.

"I want to know whether this convention is being run according to the rule of the majority and according to parliamentary rules," Green shouted, as the opponents kept calling for Farrington and Howat.

Finally Green agreed to answer questions. Farrington then said he wanted to ask a question but when he started to make a speech, he was ruled out of order and retired to the rear of the hall.

THE WOMAN WHO LOVED--AND EARNED

By JANE PHELPS

A Modern Story of Home and Business

GERRY IS WARNED.

CHAPTER 27.

I thought with a tightening of the throat how Robert always praised Marion, how he even seemed to think her more capable than either Jane or Betty. I held him tight when he came to me first. Then he would not see us.

He did not come in until after Aunt had gone to her room. I watched him in an oddly impersonal way as he talked to me. I told him his Aunt had gone to bed, but said nothing of our having been out. Neither did he volunteer any information as to his movements.

"Where did you go tonight, Bob?" I finally asked, unable to restrain myself.

"To a show!"
 "Alone?"
 "For heaven's sake, Gerry, one would think I was a kid in short pants to hear you quiz me."

"I don't mean to quiz Robert, but I am very lonely when you stay out evenings," he made no reply and I said no more.

"You should be proud of Robert," his Aunt told me before I left for the store the next day. "He spoke of going to a show last night and I questioned him a little. He says he has been working very hard and needed relaxation."

"Robert does work hard," I admitted, "but he doesn't seem to get advanced as rapidly as we had hoped when we were married."

"Perhaps you do not give him any incentive."

"I don't know what you mean?"
 "Some women are constituted that pretty clothes and a chance to show them off are more to them than the happiness or comfort of the man they marry."

"I suppose you mean—are talking of me?"
 "Robert tells me he hates this boarding house—that he rather go hungry than eat here day after day. Why don't you keep house for him?"

"What on? You surely couldn't expect us to live on Bob's salary?" I felt like telling her that it was my money what was paying her board while she visited us.

"I guess you could if you tried. But I know the way you feel. You are just like all the city girls nowadays. You hate to spoil your pretty hands washing dishes and working about the house; you would rather sell hats, or work in an office. When I was a girl a married woman thought her place was at home making her husband comfortable and happy so that he didn't have to run getting into temptation."

"It's a pretty poor sort of a man who can't withstand temptation. And as for Robert and me, I never shall give up my position until he earns enough to give us a decent home. There is no earthly reason why I should." It was the nearest to a quarrel we ever had come.

"You make your own bed. You will have to lie in it. But remember, Geraldine, I warned you."

"I'll remember."

I wondered why everyone seemed so determined to make me unhappy by blaming me because Robert did not get on. He had not been advanced, nor his salary raised. We had been married a year, in which time mine had been raised twice. It would be simple lunacy for me to give up. We were comfortable, had a little now for extras besides our living expenses. I would have a really plain talk with Bob—I had intended to for a long time. I did not believe that it was a simple matter of longing to keep house that was depressing him. It was something else, something more vital to my happiness.

It might be that it was Marion Hovey.

OUT-TAXING AMERICA.

A Japanese province has placed a tax upon a great variety of articles called luxuries, among them being walking sticks, gold rimmed eye glasses and even the bridal couple's extra suit case. The Japanese may have heard of America's tax on children's soda water and ice cream cones, and received an inspiration therefrom. At any rate those of us who felt rather cockily that all the tax levying geniuses of the world were concentrated in our country will have to admit that Japan has a few wizards of its own.

A SUIT WITH POSSIBILITIES.

A checkroom girl is suing a Chicago hotel for $3,000, this representing the tips she received during six months
which she claims were taken from her every night. The public no doubt will watch the case hopefully as the checkroom graft has long been an annoyance. There are possibilities in such a suit, because if the girl wins, what is to prevent her former benefactors, long suffering from suing her to recover
their tips?

"WE WANT LOWDEN."

At a republican meeting in Chicago
the other evening the twelve hundred men and women in the gold room at the Congress Hotel gave General Leonard Wood a very hearty and rousing reception, but when Governor Frank O. Lowden was introduced the wild and long drawn-out cheers of the delighted throng nearly lifted the roof of that sedate hotel. Despite the presence of General Wood, the crowd frankly and boisterously proclaimed Lowden for president.Scientists say that women have a thin layer of fat to protect them from the cold. When the layer was spread out the elbows were overlooked, but what we started out to say was that heaven knows they need something to protect them from the cold. Their clothes are not designed for that purpose.Indications are that the operation on the League of Nations is going to be successful, though there is no assurance that the patient will survive.
You've read Strickland Gillilan where he says, "The operation was successful but the patient, darn him, died."The Reds in this country don't want to be sent to Russia. Their brothers over there have beaten them to it and stolen everything that is loose. This country promises much more loot under soviet rule.To maintain its one-time arrogance,

EDUCATION AND RECREATION IN U. S. ARMY

Major General William G. Haan, Formerly Head of Military Tactics at Dixon College, Now Assistant Chief of Staff in Charge of This Work Writes of That Branch for Telegraph Readers.

(By Maj. Gen. Haan)

That education and recreation as applied to the new army has passed the experimental stage and is now a vital factor in the training of the soldier was shown at a convention of Army educational officers, held at Camp Zachary Taylor, near Louisville, Kentucky, on December 9, 10 and 11.Early in the year, the War Department actuated by a deep sense of responsibility felt towards the millions of men brought into the service during the war, as well as by the astounding
facts as to illiteracy and physical condition of the young men of the country as shown by draft statistics, and the excellent work done by the Commission on education and special training, had conceived an army built up on a new plan. It was proposed to make the army not only a military force of national emergency, but a great educational institution where young men of the best mental, moral and physical conditions,
and with the highest ideals of patriotic citizenship would be produced.This plan was realized, in a measure, when the congress appropriated the sum of $2,000,000 to be devoted to this purpose during the fiscal year 1920. Accordingly, in September of this year
instructions went forward to this year
minding generals of all divisional
camps and of territorial departments,
who at once appointed on their staffs,
officers known as Education and Recreation Officers to assume direct charge of the work. Each officer has associated with him at least one civilian expert in educational affairs, who furnishes assistance and advice in establishing schools and manual training classes.But it remained for the Camp Taylor Convention, called by the Secretary of War in order that the work in general
might be co-ordinated and rough places smoothed out, to show that the army is now in reality a great training school where the mothers of our young Americans will be glad to see their boys
go.This idea of the army as a vast university in khaki is admittedly hard to conceive, but nevertheless the thing has been accomplished right before our eyes.No longer is the army merely concerned with the making of a recruit into an efficient fighting man, by giving him the prescribed system of military training only for a few hours of the day and leaving him almost entirely to his own resources for the remainder of the day. It now assumes responsibility for the entire twenty-four hours of his day, and sees that every portion is gainfully spent in useful study or helpful recreation. In the soldier's life, education and recreation now have equal places with military training, and are definitely scheduled in the programme of daily work.All training, whether merely military or educational, has as its main object,
the development of the soldier's mind to make him a reasonable thinking human being. Every soldier, however poorly
he may be educated, or however limited his experience, has still a thinking mind, and that mind is active practically all the time. Such a man is incapable at the moment of looking at affairs in a broad sense, but the object of all training must be to guide that mind in the direction of right thinking.
In order to accomplish this, the instructor himself must be able to estimate about what are the channels of thought in the mind of the man being trained. In order that he may so conduct his own part of the work as to gain the confidence of the men he is instructing or leading.In developing the soldier's mind the most rapid progress is made by placing upon the man, as early as practicable,
as much responsibility as he can stand.
This placing of responsibility on the man stimulates his pride, raises his self-respect, and urge him to better effort.
This is applicable in all kinds of training. It is character building, frequently called moral training, and the most effective means of stimulating self-development.Every soldier, down to and including the last recruit, will sooner or later become a leader in a smaller or greater sense. In battle as battles are now necessarily conducted, direct responsibility very frequently goes out of the hands of the officers, and small groups of men must accomplish objectives by themselves; hence leadership must be assumed by some or all of these men.WE possession of such certificate by a soldier who has been discharged with a character of "Excellent" will be sufficient recommendation to a civilian employer as to the qualifications of the discharged soldier for employment.On the other hand, it is highly important that the men themselves take the thing seriously and realize that the government is concerned not only in making trained soldiers of them, but also making of them self-supporting and self-respecting members of the communities to which they will return on discharge.This work is unique in the history of the government, and highly important in showing the trend of the army in facing the new problems developed by the World War. It will result in making the army in time of peace a more valuable factor in the life of the nation by producing men of best possible type,

having a good general education, possessing a useful trade, but, above all,
thoroughly trained in moral character

THE ROMANCE OF MILITARY INSIGNIA

"What does that insignia mean?"

"For what was his medal given?"

In years past the average American citizen considered it a part of his blissful democracy to be ignorant of matters military; since the armistice of a year ago it has become a hall-mark of the well informed, as well as a patriotic duty, for him to know the decorations won by our valiant soldiers in their glorious smash at Germany's mailed fist.Moreover, there is a keen interest, akin to that the collegian shows in the pageants of rival football teams, in the insignia which distinguished various military units of the American Expeditionary Force. And, finally, comes the Victory Medal, soon to be the proud possession of some 4,500,000 men; and,
in after years, to be the cherished heirloom of American families.Up to this time information on insignia has been available only in piecemeal,
and there has been much misin-formation, leading to confusion. Therefore, the National Geographic Society
enlisted the co-operation of Col. Robert E. Wylie, General Staff, U. S. A., who had charge of all war department records concerning the award of medals in the present war, and the archives of those bestowed in other wars, in compiling a complete list of the medals, decorations, and insignia of all kinds recognized by the American government in the past, and multiplied so profusely during the great war.The results of Col. Wylie's compilation appear in an article, "The Romance of Military Insignia," in the December number of the National Geographic Magazine, the official organ of the National Geographic Society. Supplementing the historical and descriptive sketch are 124 illustrations, in color, of each medal, ribbon and organization shoulder insignia authorized by the United States government to be worn by its uniformed forces and by civilians
who have been honored for signal services to their country. Accompanying the illustration, in color, is a description of the history of each of the insignia.Pershing Guest Today

ASK A MILLION OF CONGRESS

awaiting deportation proceedings, the department states additional funds will be needed. In the meantime the department of justice agents had orders to push the roundup of "reds," and proceedings against the prisoners in several cities were set to begin today.

Charge Against Agents.
A statement was issued from a hotel within a stone's throw of the Department of Justice building by S. Nuorteva, who said he was secretary to Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, self-styled ambassador to the United States from the Russian soviet government, in which he made charges against agents of the Department of Justice whom he declared "had actively participated" in the preparation of some of the planks of the Communist parties on which the "persecutions" now are based. He further charged that "the chief figure in such celebrated bomb plots were agents of a similar nature."

Need of adequate laws to deal with persons advocating the overthrow of government by force of violence was urged today by Senator Sterling, republican, South Dakota, during consideration of the sedition bill in the senate.

The bill, he declared, did not prohibit discussion as to forms of government, pointing out that a man could advocate a soviet government without violating its provisions.

Answering an inquiry by Senator Gronna, republican, North Dakota, as to the wisdom of giving one man the power to say whether a book or newspaper violated the sedition act, Senator Sterling said the power had to be lodged somewhere, and since the postmaster general was the head of the mail system, he would be the proper man to determine whether the law had been violated. The right of appeal to the court was always open, he added.

BEGIN RED HEARINGS.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Jan. 7.—Proceedings to try the country of alien radicals taken in recent raids by federal authorities were instituted today when hearings of the cases of more than 200 alien "reds" were begun before a United States immigration commissioner. At the same time the county grand jury was conducting an investigation of the activities of the 300 naturalized prisoners held by local authorities for indictment under state laws against syndicalism and anarchy.

The findings of the commissioner will be submitted to Washington for final action.

HEARINGS IN NEW YORK.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

New York, Jan. 7.—Hearings in the cases of more than five hundred alleged Reds held at Ellis Island on deportation proceedings began today before immigration inspectors. Stenographic reports of their testimony were taken. They were asked whether they were members of the Communist party and whether they believed in the overthrow of the government of the United States by violence.

Byron H. Uhl, acting commissioner estimated that the inspectors could complete from thirty to forty hearings daily unless the extremists prove recalcitrant and interpose technical objections.

Expect Bitter Fight.

Speedy competition of deportation preliminaries is not expected. At least three New York lawyers are ready to conduct protracted proceedings. The finding of the inspector is subject to approval by the commissioner at the island and by authorities in Washington. When deportation is finally ordered an alien can seek to bring his case before the courts by habeas corpus proceedings.

Sixteen persons sent to Ellis Island as the result of recent raids have been released by the immigration authorities. In some cases they were found to be citizens and in others it developed that there had been improper identification in making the arrests.

RECRUITS MADE TO DRILL CRAZY SQUAD

Manila, P. I., Jan. 7.—The United States Marines stationed at Cavite have found a new way to haze recently arrived recruits.

"You'll take charge of the crazy squad today," says the first sergeant. "Crazy squad?" asks the recruit. "Sure," replies the sergeant, "Crazy Tagalogs—natives—poor nuts think they're trolley cars."

Then the recruit is led out to a long wall where a bunch of Tagalogs are at work painting and repairing.

"Ding-ding," says the boss Tagalog, and waves his arms.

"Ding-ding, ding-ding," answer the others with gestures.

"See," say the jokers, "They're all trying to make a noise like a trolley car. Sad, ain't it?"

Later the recruit learns a little Tagalog, and finds out that "ding-ding" simply means "wall" and that the natives are talking about their work; but not until he has spent many weary hours "guarding the crazy squad."

COMPANY F DRILLS WILL BE RESUMED

Every member of Company F is expected to be at the drill to be held at the Armory tomorrow evening, inasmuch as the meetings of the organization were interrupted by the holidays.

Draft Dodger Caught After Long Search

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 7.—Grover Bergdoll, one of the two brothers accused of draft dodging, and who have been sought by the police for the last two years, was arrested in his mother's home here today.

Detectives broke into the house from the front and rear entrances. While one of the men took a revolver from Bergdoll, mother of the two draft dodgers, the others went through the house and found Grover wrapped in a blanket, hiding in a box seat. He was without coat, vest or collar. The prisoner was taken to the federal building in a motor car.

Bergdoll was turned over to Captain Cottrell of the military intelligence bureau and taken to New York. A guard of soldiers accompanied him. He will be taken to Governor's Island and tried by court martial.

The search for the Bergdolls took the Federal agents all over the country. Grover got away in a high powered motor car and reports reached this city that he was seen in various sections of the west. He sent impudent messages written on post cards to the authorities. Once he was seen in Mexico and again in Cuba. He was provided with a large sum of money. Mrs. Emma Bergdoll, mother of the accused men, is the widow of a wealthy brewer.

Although born in this country, the Bergdolls were of German descent and declared they would never fight against Germany. Mrs. Bergdoll was arrested several times on the charge of obstructing the draft.

"The Farmers Working Day-How Long Shall It Be?"

The nation gasped when the soft-coal miners struck for a 30-hour week. Farmers who often work that long in two days, and are equally, if not more important in the scheme of things, began to ask questions.

In the January Farm Journal, T. N. Carver tells what will happen if farmers decide to regulate their hours of work by city standards. Eight lively drawings by E. W. Kemble. Don't fail to read this interesting article.

January Is a Record Breaker

In all its 43 years, The Farm Journal has never printed such a splendid variety of well-written, interesting, and valuable reading as in the January issue, now out. Attractive illustrations, articles dealing with great basic principles of farming and with technical farm matters—how to do things—all are presented simply and clearly for your information. No matter what kind of farming you do, the Greatest National Farm Paper fills the bill. It suits over a million American farm homes. It will suit you. Read in January—

"The $100,000,000 Farmers' Trust"

While the Farmers' Union and the Missouri Farm Clubs and the Nonpartisan League are all big and active, not one of them compares in size or influence with the Farmers' Trust, the strongest farmers' organization in the world. In January is a new study of this great cooperative success, by E. W. Gage, full of information and ideas for everyone interested in any way in increasing profits through collective action.

"A Study of Hog, Corn and Wheat Markets"

As long as market prices are controlled by something other than production cost, we must do our best to figure out ahead what prices will be. This fine article will explain how statistics and charts are used for the purpose, so that stock and grain can be marketed with the highest possible probability of good prices. Shippers should read this.

"Cutting Cordwood Cheaply"

A new article shows how cordwood can be cut at a cost of about 20 cents per cord. The machinery, of course, includes a circular saw and a drag-saw.

"Alfalfa Fits Corn Belt Farms"

This article shows how alfalfa can be made to work into a normal rotation system. A good many people think this cannot be done, but this article shows how and why.

BEST ON EARTH, SANDERSON SAYS

Peoria Man Gains More Than Twenty-five Lbs. Taking Tanlac.

"I have gained over twenty-five pounds since I commenced taking Tanlac, and troubles that have been causing me to suffer for twelve long years have been completely overcome," said James C. Sanderson, who lives at 110 South John street, Springfield, Ill. while talking to a Tanlac representative the other day.

"Yes, sir, Tanlac fixed me up all right," continued Mr. Sanderson, "and I'll tell the world that it is the best medicine on earth to build a man up when he is all run down like I was. There wasn't a time during all the twelve years that I could sit down and eat a meal without suffering afterwards. Why, I would be so bloated up with gas at times I could hardly breathe, and would have the worst sort of cramping pains in the pit of my stomach. I had actually gotten to the point where a little soup was about the only thing I could eat, and I got so weak and run down I couldn't work at all and just had to lay off from the job altogether. I was very much discouraged over my condition and I knew that unless I soon got hold of a medicine or treatment that would help me, I would not live much longer.

"Now that was the condition I was in when I commenced taking Tanlac. Before I had finished my first bottle I knew I had found the right medicine at last. My appetite came back, and I noticed that what I ate agreed with me. I began to sleep better and instead of feeling tired and worn out in the mornings, I felt rested and refreshed. Well, sir, I just stuck to Tanlac until I have now taken five bottles and now I am as hale and hearty as any man in the county. All my troubles have been completely overcome and I can do as much hard work as I ever did in my life. I never would have believed that a medicine would bring a man out like Tanlac has me, and you can just put me down as a booster for this wonderful medicine as long as I live."

TANLAC is sold in Dixon by Public Drug & Book Co., in Compton by W. N. Hills; in Franklin Grove by Geo. S. Ives; in Amboy by C. Aschenbrenner Pharmacy; in Ashton by G. R. Charters & Son.

Hens Showed Steady Egg Gain for Mrs. Pierce in Winter Weather.

"The week before we tried Don Sung, we got 5 eggs, from 30 hens. The next week, from a 50-cent package of Don Sung, we got 72 eggs, and the next week 104. Some of our hens are mere pullets and Don Sung has started them laying."—Mrs. B. F. Pierce, R. F. D. 1, Butler, Tenn.

Mrs. Pierce selected a severe time for her test—the middle of January. Yet she started getting the eggs promptly. Your hens can lay well in cold weather, and we'll prove it. Here's our offer: Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid, Burrell-Tugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

AMUSEMENTS

TONIGHT'S ATTRACTION

The coming of "His Bridal Night" to the Dixon opera house tonight is attracting the attention of local theatre-goers. The farce, which was one of the great successes of last season, is by Margaret Mayo and has been made more attractive this year by the introduction of a dozen musical numbers. Every one who has ever heard of the marriage of a twin has mentally constructed the plot "His Bridal Night." It is mistaken identity which causes the complications, with a husband who is much too busy and another gentleman who thinks he loves the bride and who is really enamored of the other sister. The sister passes herself off as the bride and they all pass a very sleepless night trying to figure out just who is who. The plot complicates itself skillfully and the identifying process is genuinely and cleanly amusing.

PATRICIA COLLINGS

Patios and humor, laughter and tears go hand in hand throughout the four acts of the new Klaw & Erlanger and George C. Tyler comedy production, "Tillie," which these managers will present at the Dixon opera house Tuesday, Jan. 13, with their new star, Miss Patricia Collings, in the title role, heading a cast of exceptional excellence. It is an entirely different Patricia Collings who plays the role of the Mennonite maid than the same little lady who was last seen here as the "Glad Girl" in "Pollyanna." Her new role fits her exceptionally well and she is pious, coquettish and appealing in turn, with the rich voice that is not the least of her assets.

The story of the comedy that Mrs. Helen R. Martin and Frank Howke, Jr. have made out of Mrs. Martin's book, "Tillie, a Mennonite Maid," is particularly interesting and novel, for the scenes are all laid amid the quaint Pennsylvania Dutch in one of their tiny settlements in the Keystone state.

Miss Collings is seen at her best and has been given a particularly excellent support in John W. Bamsome, the kindly doctor; Helen Weathersby, the sympathetic Auntie Em; Reed Hamilton, the mainly young lover, and all of the other members of the cast.

The membership drive for the American Legion is now on and so far in the drive the enrollment has totaled 600,000. Illinois has enrolled 15,000. Posts have sprung up all over the country to the extent of 5,900.

The blank printed above is an authentic copy of the application for membership printed by the legion and may be clipped from the column, filled out and sent in with the dues for one year to Rae Chadwick, Adjutant, Dixon Post, Dixon, Illinois.

The American Legion is an organization for the protection and assistance of soldiers, sailors and marines who fought in the late war. It stands for citizenship, individual and national efficiency, and loyalty to every American principle. All men who served in army or navy between April 6, 1917, and Nov. 11, 1918, whether in this country or abroad, and whether as officers or privates, are entitled to membership in the legion, providing their discharges are not dishonorable. The organization is civilian, not military, and officers who enter as members leave all distinctions of rank behind them.

How Competition Helps You

The competition that exists among the hundreds of meat distributors, large and small, means

Rivalry in Prices
Rivalry in Service
Rivalry in Economy
Rivalry in Quality

Swift & Company sells meat at the lowest possible price, consistent with quality and service. Our profit of only a fraction of a cent a pound on all products is evidence of keen competition.

Swift & Company must provide the best service to your dealer or he will buy from our competitors. This means a supply of fine fresh meat always on hand for you at your dealer's.

Swift & Company must keep down manufacturing and selling costs, and use all by-products to avoid waste, or else lose money meeting the prices of competitors who do.

Swift & Company must make its products of the highest quality, or see you turn to others. This means better meat for you and a greater variety of appetizing, wholesome food.

We are as glad for this competition as you should be. It helps to keep us on our mettle.

IF HAIR IS TURNING GRAY, USE SAGE TEA

Here's Grandmother's Recipe to Darken and Beautify Faded Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture. You can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. This ready-to-use preparation is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire dark hair and a youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

INDIGESTION
Caused by Acid-Stomach

Millions of people—in fact about 9 out of 10—suffer more or less from indigestion, acute or chronic. Nearly every case is caused by Acid-Stomach.

There are other stomach disorders which also are sure signs of Acid-Stomach—belching, flatulency, bloating, acid eructations, heartburn, sour, gassy stomach. There are many ailments which, while they do not cause much distress in the stomach itself, are nevertheless, traceable to an acid stomach. Among these are nervousness, biliousness, cirrhosis of the liver, rheumatism, indigestion, headache, weakness, insomnia, melancholia and a long list of physical and mental miseries that keep the victims in miserable health year after year.

The right thing to do is to attack these ailments at their source—get rid of the acid-stomach. A scientific modern remedy called EATONIC now makes it easy to do this. One of hundreds of thousands of grateful users of EATONIC writes: "I got a long road to health. I was suffering from indigestion for about nine years and have spent quite a sum for medical treatment without result. After using EATONIC for a few days the gas and pain in my bowels disappeared. EATONIC is just the remedy I needed."

See thousands of letters telling of these marvelous benefits. Try EATONIC and you, too, will be just as enthusiastic in its praise. Your druggist has EATONIC in a glass box from him today. He will refund your money if you are not satisfied.

DRINK MORE WATER IF KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat less meat and take Salts for Backache or Bladder trouble—Neutralizes acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly.

At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad. Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

SAYS HOT WATER WASHES POISONS FROM THE LIVER

Everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it, before breakfast.

To feel as fine as the proverbial fiddle, we must keep the liver washed clean, almost every morning, to prevent its sponge-like pores from clogging with indigestible material, sour bile and poisonous toxins, says a noted physician.

Corn Market Hurt
By Hoover Advice

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Jan. 7.—Statements by Herbert Hoover that the great bulk of European financial needs would be met by ordinary commercial credits were given a bearish construction today by some traders in corn. The market was also depressed by a setback in the value of hogs. In addition, gossip was current that export demand for rye had been satisfied for at least the time being. Opening prices, which ranged from 1/4c decline to a like advance, with May 1.34% to 1.36%, and July 1.34% to 1.35%, were followed by slight gains in some cases and then by a down turn all around to well below yesterday's finish. Oats were governed chiefly by the action of corn. After opening 1/4c to 1/2c down, including May at 85% to 84%, the market rallied a little and then declined lower than before. Provisions sympathized with the weakness of the hog market. Ribs, however were relatively firm. Subsequently, the scantiness of receipts together with complaints of car scarcity led to a slight general advance, which however failed to last. The close was unsettled, 1/4c to 1/2c net lower, with May 1.35% to 1.36% and July 1.33% to 1.33%.

PALMER NOT SURE OF LOWER PRICES FROM
PACKER DISSOLUTION

Remains to Be Seen if Democratic Competition Will Cut Costs.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, D. C., Jan. 7.—No promise of immediate reduction in food prices as the result of the dissolution agreement between the government and the packers in seen by Attorney General Palmer, he told the senate agriculture committee today in explaining the circumstances leading up to the settlement.

"There is great strength," said Mr. Palmer, "in the argument that these great concerns with their efficiency methods do handle business with less expense than many smaller units, but if so, that is efficiency gained by autocracy. We shall have to depend on getting results in this direction from competition and if they are not obtained, then our whole theory of efficiency gained by democratic competition is wrong."

Mr. Palmer told the senate agriculture committee that a representative of the packers came to see him and paved the way for settlement of pending prosecutions without resort to criminal proceedings. Robert J. Dunham, vice president of Armour & Company, was named as the representative.

"While we had a case pending against the packers before the grand jury in Chicago," Mr. Palmer declared, "I received a message from a personal friend at Chicago who said the packers desired to see me regarding their case. Their message said they wanted to present their side to the department of justice."

"I replied that if the packers desired to come with the idea of surrendering to the government, and would state how far they would go in complying with certain requirements by the government, I would be willing to meet them. I was advised that the packers would send a representative to speak for all of them that point of view without regard to the merits of the case."

Mr. Dunham's visit followed, Mr. Palmer said, and from that meeting the plan of settlement resulted.

"All the things which the government could possibly accomplish by obtaining a decree adverse to the packers after bringing a case to trial in the courts we accomplished with that agreement," Mr. Palmer added. "Indeed, we got many things that I doubt could have been obtained by such a decree. We have a perpetual injunction against monopoly by the packers, against unlawful trade practices, and all of the matters at issue, without any provisions which would prevent the government from re-opening the case at any time."

"Is there anything in the agreement to prevent the government from proceeding further against the packers?" asked Senator Norris, republican, Nebraska.

"There is not," Palmer replied, "but I do not expect to proceed criminally against them."

Senator France, republican, Maryland, suggested that the department of justice was "sending out agents to spy upon labor unions and leaving itself open to the charge that it is not pushing criminal actions against multi-millionaires."

"I had the choice of bringing the packers before the courts on the civil or the criminal side," the attorney general retorted. "My decision was that the interests of justice were best served by civil proceedings. I call your attention to the fact that when a similar question was raised in the coal strike I brought proceedings against the miners' union on the civil side and enforced the court's decree by contempt proceedings. It doesn't lay in the mouth of any man, high or low, to say the attorney general is a respecter of persons."
